

COLETTE JONES

Cosmic Country | Americana | Folk

Bio: Colette Jones is a singer, multi-instrumentalist, writer, artist, and scholar of American roots music from Seattle, WA. Her catalog includes two full-length albums recorded during her years living in Nashville, TN, with several new projects in the works. Her brand of Americana is ethereal and introspective, with a touch of outlaw country spirit. With soaring vocals, she sings stories of longing and resilience while leaning into timeless classic country and folk influences. Stream the debut, Deluge wherever you listen to music. For more information visit colettejonesmusic.com

Releases: Deluge (2022) – Debut album recorded in Nashville with Grammy award-winning producer Robb Tripp

Deluge (Remastered) – Four-song EP of new and improved tracks from the debut, featuring additional steel guitar and a brand-new mix. Engineered by Jason Roller (Magic Shack Productions)

Upcoming Releases TBA: Red Bird – Sophomore album recorded in Nashville at Magic Shack Studio, produced and engineered by Jason Roller (two-time Grammy nominee, guitarist for Alabama and the Grand Ole Opry band)

Live at The Black Cat Cabaret – Live acoustic performance in an intimate setting. Never before heard arrangements, special guest musicians, stories, and specially chosen encore numbers.

Live Setup: Colette Jones performs typically as a folk duo with herself on acoustic guitar and lead vocals, and accompaniment on mandolin. Solo or full band (bass, fiddle, second guitar etc.) negotiable. Artist can provide PA and equipment and will travel. Her dynamic and heartfelt performances resonate with audiences from cozy listening room settings to vibrant honky-tonks, festivals, and beyond.

Recent Highlights:

Chosen as a Northwest Folklife Festival 2025 performing artist
Featured in Dagens Country as a Washington State Americana artist of note

Booking: Two Wolves Media Contact: info@colettejonesmusic.com

Listen: Spotify | Bandcamp Social: Instagram

colettejonesmusic.com

